

Notice of intent to complete

Further Education and Training Act 2014

If a supervising registered training organisation (SRTO) has received a completion agreement signed by at least one party to the training contract, they should use this form to advise the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT) when they are reasonably satisfied that the apprentice or trainee has completed their apprenticeship or traineeship, but one party has either:

- refused or neglected to sign a completion agreement after being requested to do so; or
- not signed a completion agreement because they cannot be contacted.

Following investigation, DESBT will consider issuing a completion certificate to the apprentice or trainee.

How to return this form

Please return this completed form and a copy of the completion agreement (signed by at least one party):

- via email to apprenticeshipsinfo@qld.gov.au or
- via post to Apprenticeships Info, PO Box 15121, City East. Qld 4002.

IMPORTANT: Failure to complete all details in this form and attach a copy of the completion agreement may lead to delays in processing. If a signature was obtained in accordance with the Electronic Signing Policy for Apprenticeships and Traineeships in Queensland, the SRTO must attach this evidence.
