

Permanent transfer application by all parties and proposed new employer

An apprentice or trainee, their employer under an active training contract and a proposed new employer may use this form to apply to permanently transfer the contract to the new employer. Permanently transferring the contract removes the need to cancel with the original employer and sign a new training contract with the new employer.

Please return the completed form by one of the options on the next page and the application will be decided within 28 days of receipt. If the proposed new employer and apprentice or trainee wish to change their supervising registered training organisation (SRTO) during the transfer process they should also complete and submit form ATF-010: 'Change of supervising registered training organisation', which is available from their Australian Apprenticeship Support Network (AASN) Provider or the department's website at www.desbt.qld.gov.au/training/apprentices/resources/forms.

Training contract obligations

The employer, apprentice or trainee, and parent or guardian (where applicable) agree that:

- the transfer commences from the date determined by our AASN Provider or the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT) upon approval of the transfer
- the transfer can only be changed by our agreement and we acknowledge written notification or application may need to be made to our AASN Provider or DESBT within strict timeframes
- the apprentice or trainee can see, and correct, any information about himself/herself in the training contract or held by the employer in relation to this training contract
- we will try to resolve any dispute we have between us, and if we can't, we will contact our AASN Provider or DESBT to request assistance or to access the appropriate dispute resolution processes
- the training contract can be audited by DESBT or an Australian Government department
- the training contract is successfully completed when there is agreement from the employer, SRTO and apprentice or trainee, and approval by DESBT, that the apprentice or trainee has attained all the required competencies
- the training contract expires if it reaches the term of the contract without the apprentice or trainee having attained all the required competencies or a request for an extension of the contract having been endorsed by our AASN Provider or DESBT
- the training contract may be terminated in accordance with the Further Education and Training Act 2014 (the Act).

The new employer agrees to:

- employ and train the apprentice or trainee as agreed in our training plan and ensure the apprentice or trainee understands the choices that he/she has regarding the training
- provide the appropriate facilities and experienced people to facilitate the training and supervise the apprentice or trainee while at work, in accordance with the training plan
- make sure the apprentice or trainee receives on-the-job training and assessment in accordance with our training plan
- provide work that is relevant and appropriate to the vocation and also to the achievement of the qualification referred to in the training contract
- release the apprentice/trainee from work and pay the appropriate wages to attend any training and assessment specified in our training plan
- meet all legal requirements regarding the apprentice or trainee, including but not limited to, occupational health and safety requirements and payment of wages and conditions under the relevant employment arrangements
- repay any payment I receive that I am not entitled to
- work with our SRTO and the apprentice or trainee to make sure we follow our training plan, keep training records up-to-date, and monitor and support the apprentice/trainee's progress; and
- let our AASN Provider or DESBT know within 14 days if the training contract has become jeopardised because the apprentice or trainee is unlikely to meet the requirements of his or her training plan or the training required under the apprentice's or trainee's training plan cannot be completed within the nominal term of the training contract.

The new employer acknowledges that it is an offence to use information in the training contract to discriminate against any person, including the apprentice/trainee.

Declaration by the proposed new employer and apprentice or trainee

This transfer forms a legally binding agreement between an employer and employee for the training of an apprentice or trainee leading to a nationally recognised qualification. In signing this transfer the parties are bound by the obligations detailed below and as outlined in the Act.

We, the new employer, apprentice or trainee and parent or guardian (where applicable) have read and understood the Training Contract Obligations outlined above, and declare that to the best of our knowledge the details entered on this transfer are true and correct. We understand that giving false or misleading information is a serious offence, and that the information provided in this transfer:

- is collected for the purposes of registration, preparing statistics, reporting, program administration, monitoring and evaluation, calculating incentives and allowances paid to employers and apprentices/trainees and preventing dual payments;
- may be disclosed to and used for these purposes by the Australian Government, including the Australian Government Department of Education and Training and Centrelink, State/Territory government departments and agencies, employers, Australian Apprenticeship Support Network Providers, registered training organisations (RTO), non-government education authorities and the contractors or agents of any of these organisations, departments and agencies;
- may also be exchanged between Australian Government agencies (for Youth Allowance, Austudy and ABSTUDY administration) to provide confirmation that the apprentice or trainee who signed this declaration is an Australian apprentice; and
- may otherwise be disclosed without consent where authorised or required by law.

The employer, apprentice/trainee and SRTO undertake to negotiate and sign a training plan.

Permanent transfer application by all parties and proposed new employer

The transfer will not take effect until approved. If NOT approved and the apprentice or trainee has already left the original employer, the current training contract will need to be cancelled. If this happens, the apprentice or trainee and proposed new employer may contact their AASN Provider and submit a new training contract for consideration.

IMPORTANT – Failure to complete all details on this form may delay processing of this transaction.
